

U dance fest

1-2 March 2014

Sponsored By:

The professional dance community of the
Twin Cities

Welcome to Dance Fest!

We're very happy to have you here today. This event is the brain-child of several volunteers who were disappointed that Star of the North DanceSport Classic was cancelled this year. Everything you see here today was put together in under thirty days!

Dance Fest can be thought of as a simpler version of Star of the North. We streamlined the event and kept what made Star of the North so great: the welcoming atmosphere and the local, friendly approach. Upgrades from previous years include:

- This gorgeous venue, generously provided and decorated by Dancers Studio
- Discounted entries
- More seminars by local professionals
- More scholarship, with over $8,000 given in total
- An improved offering of food and beverages

Dance Fest strives to introduce individuals of all ages to competitive ballroom dance and to create a supportive environment for dancers of all levels, from beginners to seasoned dancesport veterans devoted to their ongoing competitive aspirations. Whether you're dancing or spectating, we hope you enjoy this event.

While you're here, be sure to grab a complimentary copy of Sheer Dance, a new independent dance periodical designed to engage the dance community. It comes out online on the first of each month at www.sheerdance.com, or you can like the Facebook page if you'd like to receive updates and announcements for the latest issue. You can also subscribe to the publication and have a copy mailed to your home or office each month. If you'd like to share photos or stories of your dance experiences, your submissions are always welcome and can be emailed to info@sheerdance.com.

Later in the year, we look forward to the third annual Minnesota Ballroom Blast on Saturday, October 25th. With over 330 participants last year, this fun and low-stress event is designed around providing dancers with feedback from multiple professionals. Newcomers to competing or ballroom dance in general can enjoy a fun, stress-free way to get feedback and understand the format of a dance competition. Blast also makes for an ideal companion event for the many competitors who find winter competitions to be the highlight of their year. Instead of just placements, find out how the judges react to the work you've put in so that at your next competition, you're ready to make your callbacks and take first place. With a spectacular show in the evening, Blast is a fabulous event for spectators as well.

Thank you for supporting ballroom dance in Minnesota, and we hope you have a wonderful time here at Dance Fest.

Enjoy!

—The Organizers of Dance Fest

Thank You

This event couldn't have been put together without the tireless work of many volunteers, officials, sponsors, and the support of the community. If you see a volunteer, official, or sponsor today, please extend your thanks.

Officials

Judges

ELENA BERSTEN

At the age of ten, Elena learned rhythmic gymnastics and in 1995 became a Russian gymnastics champion. At the age of twelve, she started learning ballroom and Latin. In the summer of 1998, she and her mother (a former Russian champion) opened the dance studio 21 Century. At age sixteen, Elena went to school for choreography. In her dancing career, Elena won numerous awards for her dancing abilities and won many prestigious Russian championships and titles. At the age of eighteen, she won the Russian formation team competition.

From 2000 to 2005, Elena attended the Orel State Institute of Arts and Culture and received a special certificate as a ballroom instructor. She also attended a Russian university for choreography. From 2003 to 2006, she was invited to be a dancer for Europe's renowned Moscow's Starlight Dancers. She toured in Finland, Sweden, Monte Carlo, and Cyprus. Elena also performed with many celebrities, including Lou Bega, Patricia Kass, Boney M, Touch and Go, and many other great performers. Elena performed on some of the most prestigious stages in Moscow and St. Petersburg. In 2006, she created her own dance show, 21 Century Dance. And from 2008 to 2010, she was invited to perform with Burn the Floor as part of the main couple.

Elena is co-owner of the Trophy Mayor dancesport competition. She is a recognized official judge of Russian Federation DanceSport and is USTA/NDCA-certified as a highly qualified member adjudicator in both international and American styles. She trained many of the junior and youth champions of Russia in her ballroom and Latin club, 21 Vek in Orel, Russia. Now Elena is co-owner and director of Dance with Us America, which is considered to be one of the best ballroom and Latin dance studios in the Midwest.

KATE BRATT

Kate Bratt has been on the ballroom dance scene since 2006. She now competes in both American rhythm and smooth, as well as teaching all the international dances. Kate and her students have been placed in the finals at both local and national competitions, and they continue to make strides in the dancesport universe. Balancing family time with her husband and three little girls, teaching her amazing students, and dancing around the nation is a challenge and a blessing. She loves what she does, and she does it well.

Officials

MARCY MCHENRY

Marcy McHenry has been dancing and teaching ballroom and Latin dance in the Twin Cities for over thirty years. She has competed professionally and in the pro/am divisions in international Latin, international standard, American smooth, and American rhythm. Since 1986, Marcy has owned and operated Dancers Studio. She has recently expanded her business to DS Event Center, where the business hosts social events, corporate events, and local and national dance events. Although Marcy is very passionate about teaching dance, her greatest love is the love that she gives her three handsome and successful boys and her wonderful nine-year-old daughter.

MARIUSZ OLSZEWSKI

Mariusz Olszewski is a native of Poland and a ballroom artist who has coached and choreographed for top-ranking ballroom dance couples, including two professional world American smooth champions, US Rising Star smooth champions, Ohio Star Rising Star Latin champions, and Polish amateur and professional Latin champions. He is a founding member of the Beyond Ballroom Dance Company and served as its rehearsal and artistic co-director.

Since arriving in the United States in 1996, Mariusz has performed at the biggest dance festivals and on such prominent stages as Kennedy Center in Washington, DC, the Joyce Theater in New York, and the Guthrie Theater in Minneapolis. He choreographed for and collaborated with several dance companies, including Zenon Dance Company, Minnesota Dance Theater, and James Sewell Ballet.

Additionally, for the past five seasons, Mariusz has been a featured choreographer on the Polish version of the hit TV show So You Think You Can Dance. He created a record number of thirty routines for So You Think You Can Dance - Poland and specializes in ballroom, jazz, and contemporary dance styles.

Mariusz is the recipient of a 2005 McKnight Artist Fellowship for Dancers. His life motto is: "I live to dance; I dance to live."

Officials

LISA VOGEL

Lisa Vogel nourished her love for dance from a young age, training across a broad range of styles, including ballet, modern and contemporary, and ballroom. Top competitive ballroom accolades include: 2007 United States National Rising Star Champion; 2008 Professional Open Champion of French Open, Mexico Dance Sport, and Caribbean Open; 2007 World Open Professional American Smooth Finalist and 2008 Bronze Medalist; and 2008 United States Open Professional American Smooth Finalist and Silver Medalist in 2009.

In addition to her competitive career, Lisa has toured across the United States and performed on Broadway, as well as having been a featured performer in consecutive years of PBS's national television broadcast of America's Ballroom Challenge. In 2009 she was recognized with the National Dance Council of America Community Service Award for volunteer work teaching dance to underprivileged youth in Juarez, Mexico.

Lisa received her BFA in dance from Arizona State University, where she was the recipient of academic and artistic awards. Most recently, she has returned from a year abroad having graduated with an MA in contemporary dance performance from the Irish World Academy of Music and Dance in Limerick, Ireland, as a beneficiary of the Stepping Stone Scholarship.

Since returning, she has been a selected choreographer and soloist performer in the 2013 "RENOVATE, A Choreographer's Evening" as well as performing with BODYTALK in the Minnesota Fringe Festival. Lisa is excited to be back in her Minnesota home to further pursue her dance practice and is thrilled to be choreographing and performing with the Beyond Ballroom Dance Company this upcoming season.

Host

KRISTINA LEE

Kristina Lee is a professional ballroom dancer who began studying dance at the age of three. In her dance career, Kristina became an Irish dance champion competing at the national championships and representing the United States twice at the world championships. Kristina has toured with several well-known dance companies and has been honored to dance professionally with several Grammy-winning bands. Often at these performances, records were set with audiences exceeding eighty thousand. Kristina's dancing has been featured on local, national, and international television. Her students have won numerous scholarships, championships, and top student awards while dancing with her at prestigious competitions. Kristina Lee teaches American smooth and rhythm, international Latin and standard, and social dancing.

Officials

MC

GENE BERSTEN

Born in Belarus, Gene Bersten came to the United States as a young child. He began dancing at the age of ten and entered his first ballroom dance competition at the age of thirteen. The thrill of competing inspired Gene to take his dancing career to a new level, and this journey continues today. Gene is a remarkable performer, a ballroom dance champion, and a creative choreographer.

Gene has starred in the most prestigious ballroom dance show in the world, Burn the Floor, and has performed with international superstar singer Akon. In addition to dancing for diabetes prevention, cancer research, and other fund-raising events, Gene has performed at the Mall of America, Mystic Lake Casino, Chipotle Headquarters, the Minneapolis Metrodome, the Millennium Hotel, fashion shows, and fine restaurants, totaling over three hundred dance performances.

Beyond Gene's extensive dance achievements, he has also managed Magic Ballroom School of Dance, one of the top ballroom dance schools in the Midwest, known for training highly skilled dancers and representing the new generation of dancesport. Magic Ballroom School of Dance became part of Gene's studio, Dance with Us America, and he continues to nurture skilled dancers at all ages and levels.

DJ

SHANE MEUWISSEN

Shane has been teaching dance in the Twin Cities for over ten years. In that time, he has led students from basic bronze steps to advanced open routines in all four styles. He travels around the country competing pro/am with his students in places like New Orleans, Los Angeles, Ohio, and numerous other cities. In the past few years, Shane has been among the top teachers at numerous competitions, including Twin Cities Open, Wisconsin Dancesport, and others, and has placed in the top ten instructors in the country on the National Dancer's Cup Circuit for several years.

While he believes that dancing should be fun and exciting, he understands that ongoing satisfaction in dancing requires continued improvement in one's dance skills, so he helps his students focus on important technique, from footwork to body ticks, from arm styling to three-dimensional movement. With a strong belief in his students, he continues to work with them and help them become phenomenal dancers.

Newcomers Guide

to Competitive Ballroom Dancing

DANCESPORT

Ballroom dancing is a competitive sport with specific rules, structures, and judging criteria. A typical ballroom competition consists of events in various dance styles, age groups, and skill levels.

DANCE STYLES

The following dance styles are featured at most USA Dance DanceSport Competitions:

American Rhythm

- Cha Cha
- Rumba
- Swing
- Bolero
- Mambo

American Smooth

- Waltz
- Tango
- Foxtrot
- Viennese Waltz

International Latin

- Cha Cha
- Samba
- Rumba
- Paso Doble
- Jive

International Standard

- Waltz
- Tango
- Viennese Waltz
- Foxtrot
- Quickstep

International standard and American smooth share many technical principles, and many couples compete in both styles. In standard, the couple remains in closed dance position throughout each dance. In smooth, they dance in open positions (side by side, shadow, etc.) as well as in closed position.

Although international Latin and American rhythm both include cha cha and rumba, each dance style uses different technique and music tempos.

SKILL LEVELS

In ballroom parlance, the term proficiency level is used to describe the expertise with which a given couple performs—a combination of their training, competition experience, and natural talent. Depending on the skill level, dancers will compete in single-dance events (one dance at a time) or multi-dance events (several dances in a row). As the skill level increases, so do the number of dances available to the dancers.

Newcomer

Dance Fest includes a newcomer level, consisting of single-dance events, which provides dancers new to competing with a level in which they can primarily dance with other newcomers.

Syllabus Levels

- Bronze
- Silver
- Gold

In each dance style, couples generally begin at the bronze syllabus level and work their way up through silver and gold. Each syllabus level has a list of clearly defined dance steps, or figures. Couples competing in a given syllabus are not allowed to perform figures of a higher proficiency level, although couples competing in silver or gold usually include certain bronze figures in their routines. There are also certain costume restrictions on syllabus dancers. For example, syllabus costumes may not feature shiny fabric, crystals, or decorations.

Open Levels

- Pre-Championship
- Championship

Dancers typically graduate from the syllabus levels on to the open levels. At the open levels, both costume and figure restrictions are lifted, though dancers do still use syllabus figures along with original, non-syllabus choreography. Championship is the most competitive level in ballroom dance.

MIXED PROFICIENCY

Mixed-proficiency events give dancers a unique opportunity to compete with someone at a different level of dancing. Brand-new dancers can dance with people who have been dancing awhile; people who have been dancing for over twenty years can dance with individuals in their first year of dancing; etc. In these partnerships, only the less proficient partner is judged.

Newcomers Guide

TEAM MATCHES

At Dance Fest, collegiate teams compete in international and American styles, vying for first-place honors and generous scholarship money to help encourage their continued exploration of ballroom dance. Each team consists of three couples, and each couple is assigned a specific dance in their chosen style. The team matches are very loud and exuberant, so find some earplugs and get ready to cheer for your favorite team!

JACK AND JILL

Jack and Jill events are designed to be fun for everyone! In these dances, couples are paired up randomly and are often judged on enthusiasm as well as technique. Dancers and spectators alike are encouraged to get involved in the Jack and Jill dances. You never know who might take home first place!

STRICTLY DANCES

The Strictly category contains dances not included in the core four styles of American rhythm and smooth and international Latin and standard. These dances include Argentine tango, lindy hop, salsa, west coast swing, etc. These are judged based on the character and technique of each dance, which can be very different from the techniques customary in the core four dance styles.

JUDGING

Judges are certified by various licensing agencies. They are also experienced competitors and instructors.

Judging is both an objective and a subjective process. Couples are judged on their technical skill, their interpretation of each dance, and their showmanship. In addition, each adjudicator has his or her own personal standards. For this reason, several adjudicators will judge each event to ensure fairness.

Depending on the number of entries, competitors may be required to compete in a series of elimination rounds until six couples are recalled for the final round by the judges. These six couples will be ranked first through sixth.

COMPETITOR PARTICIPATION

Dancers compete in heats, which are a specific group of competitors competing in a particular event at a specified time (or times, if there will be callbacks). Typically, dancers will receive a program or heat list to let them know approximately what times they'll be expected to compete. Dancers should be prepared to compete at least half an hour before their scheduled heats in case the competition is running ahead of schedule.

When it is time for dancers to compete, they will form a line with their fellow competitors in the designated on-deck area. When their heat is called, they'll find a spot on the floor and dance until the music stops. They'll take a bow and exit the floor. If a heat has a large number of competitors, it is likely there will be a callback process in which the judges select a number of couples to return to the floor and dance again. This process will continue until there are eight or fewer couples (the ideal number is six) remaining on the floor, which will be the final round.

AUDIENCE PARTICIPATION

Many people attending their first ballroom event expect to find the audience sitting in serene dignity, delicately applauding at the completion of each dance. Instead, the spectators are yelling, jumping up and down, and generally carrying on the way they would at any other spectator sport.

Ballroom dancers thrive on audience appreciation. Even if you don't know the first thing about ballroom, you still have an important role to play at an event. Audience participation is not only allowed but is encouraged and welcomed.

Cheer, applaud, and call out the numbers of your favorite couples. Being an active spectator ensures that you'll have a great time!

Thanks for Joining Us!

We'd love to see you at the third annual Minnesota Ballroom Blast in October, a fun, low-stress event designed to provide dancers with feedback from seasoned dance professionals. This event is excellent preparation for upcoming competitions. If you want to know what the judges see when you dance, without the stress of competing against other couples, join us on October 25th at the North Star Ballroom. Visit www.mnballroomblast.com for more information.

Don't forget to submit photos and articles to Sheer Dance! All content can be emailed to info@sheerdance.com, and you can download the magazine at www.sheerdance.com. Sheer Dance is your first stop for information on what's going on in the local ballroom dance community.

Thanks for making Dance Fest a success, and we hope to see you again soon!
