Welcome to Dance Fest!

Welcome!

Welcome, friends!

We're very happy to have you here today at the fourth annual Dance Fest. Dance Fest strives to introduce individuals of all ages to competitive ballroom dance and to create a supportive environment for dancers of all levels. Whether you're dancing or spectating, we're confident you'll enjoy this event.

This year is very exciting for us! We've kept many of the things we're extremely proud of: seminars taught by some of the nation's best coaches, photography completely free of charge to all competitors, and our famous local, friendly approach. However, we've added many improvements to this year's event:

- A gorgeous new venue, right in the heart of our state's great capitol with 20,000 square feet of space!
- The 5 for $5 program, a new way for aspiring dancers to learn and grow
- Scholarships and gifts - valued at more than $18,000 awarded over the next two days!

While you're here, be sure to read through your complimentary issue of Sheer Dance, an independent magazine designed to engage the partner-dancing community. Sheer Dance is published online on the first of each month at www.sheerdance.com, and you can subscribe to the publication to have a copy mailed to your home or office. Like Sheer Dance on Facebook to receive updates and announcements for the latest issue, and share photos or stories of your dance experiences by emailing submissions@sheerdance.com.

Later in the year, we look forward to the sixth annual Minnesota Ballroom Blast on Saturday, October 28th. With over 280 participants and hundreds of spectators, this fun and low-stress event is designed to provide dancers with feedback from world-class professionals. Newcomers to competing or ballroom dance in general can enjoy a fun, stress-free way to get feedback and understand the format of a dance competition. Blast also makes for an ideal companion event for the many competitors who find winter competitions to be the highlight of their year. Instead of just placements, find out how the judges react to the work you've put in so that at your next competition, you're ready to make your callbacks and take first place. As with Dance Fest, there will be seminars throughout the day that will help you make sense of your feedback and improve as a dancer.

The highlight of Minnesota Ballroom Blast will be the evening Halloween Ball. As a variety dance that featured over 250 dancers on the floor, the evening dance is a great way to mingle with enthusiastic dancers from around the Midwest. The evening will also feature performances by nationally-ranked talent, as well as our famous costume contest. With such a spectacular show in the evening, Blast is a fabulous event for spectators as well as those seeking critique. For more information, check out www.mnballroomblast.com

Thank you for supporting ballroom dance in the Midwest, and we hope you have a wonderful time here at Dance Fest. Enjoy!

—The Organizers of Dance Fest

Our Mission

U Dance Fest's mission is to introduce competitors and spectators to Dancesport: Focused on those new to ballroom dance and to competitions.

Newcomer's Guide

to Competitive Ballroom Dancing

DANCESPORT

Ballroom dancing is a competitive sport with specific rules, structures, and judging criteria. A typical ballroom competition consists of events in various dance styles, age groups, and skill levels.

DANCE STYLES

The following dance styles are featured at most USA Dance DanceSport Competitions:

American Rhythm

- Cha Cha
- Rumba
- Swing
- Bolero
- Mambo

American Smooth

- Waltz
- Tango
- Foxtrot
- Viennese Waltz

International Latin

- Cha Cha
- Samba
- Rumba
- Paso Doble
- Jive

International Standard

- Waltz
- Tango
- Viennese Waltz
- Foxtrot
- Quickstep

International standard and American smooth share many technical principles, and many couples compete in both styles. In standard, the couple remains in closed dance position throughout each dance. In smooth, they dance in open positions (side by side, shadow, etc.) as well as in closed position.

Although international Latin and American rhythm both include cha cha and rumba, each dance style uses different technique and music tempos.

SKILL LEVELS

In ballroom parlance, the term proficiency level is used to describe the expertise with which a given couple performs—a combination of their training, competition experience, and natural talent. Depending on the skill level, dancers will compete in single-dance events (one dance at a time) or multi-dance events (several dances in a row). As the skill level increases, so do the number of dances available to the dancers.

Newcomer

Dance Fest includes a newcomer level, consisting of single-dance events, which provides dancers new to competing with a level in which they can primarily dance with other newcomers.

Syllabus Levels

- Bronze
- Advanced Bronze
- Silver
- Gold

In each dance style, couples generally begin at the bronze syllabus level and work their way up through silver and gold. Each syllabus level has a list of clearly defined dance steps, or figures. Couples competing in a given syllabus are not allowed to perform figures of a higher proficiency level, although couples competing in silver or gold usually include certain bronze figures in their routines. There are also certain costume restrictions on syllabus dancers. For example, syllabus costumes may not feature shiny fabric, crystals, or decorations.

Open Levels

- Novice
- Pre-Championship
- Championship

Dancers typically graduate from the syllabus levels on to the open levels. At the open levels, both costume and figure restrictions are lifted, though dancers do still use syllabus figures along with original,

Newcomer's Guide

non-syllabus choreography. Championship is the most competitive level in ballroom dance.

MIXED PROFICIENCY

Mixed-proficiency events give dancers a unique opportunity to compete with someone at a different level of dancing. Brand-new dancers can dance with people who have been dancing awhile; people who have been dancing for over twenty years can dance with individuals in their first year of dancing; etc. In these partnerships, only the less proficient partner is judged.

TEAM MATCHES

At Dance Fest, collegiate teams compete in international and American styles, vying for first-place honors and generous scholarship money to help encourage their continued exploration of ballroom dance. Each team consists of three couples, and each couple is assigned a specific dance in their chosen style. The team matches are very loud and exuberant, so find some earplugs and get ready to cheer for your favorite team!

JACK AND JILL

Jack and Jill events are designed to be fun for everyone! In these dances, couples are paired up randomly and are often judged on enthusiasm as well as technique. Dancers and spectators alike are encouraged to get involved in the Jack and Jill dances. You never know who might take home first place!

STRICTLY DANCES

The Strictly category contains dances not included in the core four styles of American rhythm and smooth and international Latin and standard. These dances include Argentine tango, lindy hop, salsa, west coast swing, etc. These are judged based on the character and technique of each dance, which can be very different from the techniques customary in the core four dance styles.

JUDGING

Judges are certified by various licensing agencies. They are also experienced competitors and instructors.

Judging is both an objective and a subjective process. Couples are judged on their technical skill, their interpretation of each dance, and their showmanship. In addition, each adjudicator has his or her own personal standards. For this reason, several adjudicators will judge each event to ensure fairness.

Depending on the number of entries, competitors may be required to compete in a series of elimination rounds until six couples are recalled for the final round by the judges. These six couples will be ranked first through sixth.

COMPETITOR PARTICIPATION

Dancers compete in heats, which are a specific group of competitors competing in a particular event at a specified time (or times, if there will be callbacks). Typically, dancers will receive a program or heat list to let them know approximately what times they'll be expected to compete. Dancers should be prepared to compete at least half an hour before their scheduled heats in case the competition is running ahead of schedule.

When it is time for dancers to compete, they will form a line with their fellow competitors in the designated on-deck area. When their heat is called, they'll find a spot on the floor and dance until the music stops. They'll take a bow and exit the floor. If a heat has a large number of competitors, it is likely there will be a callback process in which the judges select a number of couples to return to the floor and dance again. This process will continue until there are eight or fewer couples (the ideal number is six) remaining on the floor, which will be the final round.

AUDIENCE PARTICIPATION

Many people attending their first ballroom event expect to find the audience sitting in serene dignity, delicately applauding at the completion of each dance. Instead, the spectators are yelling, jumping up and down, and generally carrying on the way they would at any other spectator sport.

Ballroom dancers thrive on audience appreciation. Even if you don't know the first thing about ballroom, you still have an important role to play at an event. Audience participation is not only allowed but is encouraged and welcomed.

Cheer, applaud, and call out the numbers of your favorite couples. Being an active spectator ensures that you'll have a great time!

Thank You, Volunteers!

This event couldn't have been put together without the tireless work of many volunteers, contributors, sponsors, and the support of the community. If you see a volunteer, official, or sponsor today, please extend your thanks.

Our Volunteer Team

Michael Kasinkas

Committee Chair & Facilities Coordinator

Michael began dancing as a child, developing a wide range of knowledge in all dance styles from classical ballet to jazz and hip-hop. He first joined the world of ballroom dance as a member of the University of Minnesota Ballroom Dance Club. Since graduating, he remains active fostering the ballroom dance community at the University of Minnesota, as well as with the larger dance community at Dancers Studio and through the non-profit charity U Partner Dance. In addition to serving as Chairman of Dance Fest, Michael also serves as Chairman of Minnesota Ballroom Blast held in October. Michael works as a Statistician at Medtronic and when he is not working or dancing, enjoys going to the zoo.

Michael has been dancing exclusively with his partner, Taylor, since 2013, and they teach a group class at Dancers Studio on Tuesday nights at 8:00 pm. They are two-time National Open 9-Dance Championship finalists. Please join them in their class or approach them with any questions.

Daniel O'Connell

Marketing Director and Scholarships Coordinator

Daniel started his dance career ten years ago as a founding officer of the Carleton College Ballroom and Latin Dance Team. He met his wife while preparing for the spiritual predecessor to Dance Fest, Star of the North DanceSport Classic. It is his hope that someone is fortunate enough to meet the love of their life at this year's Dance Fest.

Daniel O'Connell is the founder and Chief Technology Officer of an engineering services firm serving Fortune 100 companies, as well as a founding board member of U Partner Dance, Inc.

Theresa Kimler

Project Manager, Officials Coordinator and Awards, and Scholarships Coordinator.

Theresa is the a 7-time USA Dance Open American Smooth Champion, 9-time American Rhythm Champion, and 4-time Open 9-Dance Champion. She wishes all dancers the best and, most importantly, have FUN!

Craig Hagensick

Treasurer

Craig has been a volunteer fixture in the dance community for the past ten years. Mainly a social dancer who now exerts more of his energy to running, having competed in two Boston Marathons and is now also a fixture in the local race community. Craig works as a data analyst for the Minnesota Court system, currently in Ramsey County.

Brittney Heisserer

Professionals Liaison

Brittney is a dancer for the University of Minnesota Ballroom Dance Club. She is a sophomore working towards a major in nursing. In her free time she likes looking at pictures of goats.

Joel Torgeson

Photography Coordinator

Joel, an avid athlete and dancer, enjoys bringing the joy of dance into the lives of newcomers. A Sheer Dance columnist and former UMN leader, he's thrilled to see so much enthusiasm at Blast!

Our Volunteer Team

Karen Maldonado

Decorations Coordinator

Now a productive member of society, Karen works as a cardiovascular nurse at Abbott Northwestern Hospital. Karen is proud alumna of the University of Minnesota and its Ballroom Dance Club. Most recently, Karen has begun her foray into pro/am dancing. When not dancing or working, Karen is a complete homebody and stays at home with her three cats.

Neli Petkova

Social Media Coordinator

Neli Petkova is a 2015 National Pre-Championship Standard Gold Medalist and 8th in the USA in Championship Standard. Growing up in Bulgaria, she started dancing Latin and Ballroom at age ten, and she has been a passionate competitor ever since. Now, Neli also applies her knowledge and training towards her goals of cultivating the dance community in the Twin Cities and sharing her joy of dance with others.

Nicholas Westlake

Chairman of Judges, Scrutineer, and Website Manager

Nicholas is a 2-time National Championship Standard Semi-Finalist as well as a dedicated competitor, a focused teacher and student of dance, and a sucker for great espresso.

Olivia Wicker

Designer and Program Coordinator

Olivia is a fresh face in dance and design. A life-long martial artist, her love of competitive sports and artistic creation drew her to study kinesiology and graphic design at the University of Minnesota. Now she's enjoying the adventure of ballroom dancing.

Rosemary O'Connell

Registrar

Rosemary has been active in the ballroom dance community for ten years on the collegiate circuit and is finally an "adult" now that she has earned her PhD in mathematics. She spends her days working as a software engineer and her evenings dancing, reading, and playing oboe.

Taylor Wall

Volunteer Coordinator

Taylor began dancing at the age of four, but joined the world of ballroom dancing in 2010 when she joined the University of Minnesota Ballroom Dance Club. In addition to her experience as a dance participant, Taylor spent three years as an officer of the University of Minnesota Ballroom Dance Club before beginning to develop competitive events such as Minnesota Ballroom Blast and Dance Fest as Volunteer Coordinator. She currently serves as a founding board member of the non-profit charity U Partner Dance and is Editor in Chief of the monthly publication Sheer Dance. In her day-job, Taylor works as a legal assistant at a tax law firm in Edina.

Taylor has been dancing exclusively with her partner, Michael, since 2013, and they teach a group class at Dancers Studio on Tuesday nights at 8:00 pm. They are two-time National Open 9-Dance Championship finalists. Please join them in their class or approach them with any questions.

Our Volunteer Team

Maria Russett*Scrutineer's Assistant

Maria Russett is a social ballroom dancer who enjoys the wonderful world of retail at Target. Outside of ballroom, her hobbies include travelling for dance events, blues dancing, and petting any friendly animals she encounters.

Jessica Schlaz*Scrutineer's Assistant

Jessica is a strictly social dancer. When not holed up in a lab working on getting her computer science degree, she's volunteering with the University of Minnesota Ballroom Dance Club, planning events for oSTEM @ Minnesota, or working at the Undergraduate Research Opportunities Program office.

Kiah Schaeffer*Scrutineer's Assistant

Kiah is sophomore studying Design and Technical Theatre with an emphasis in costuming at the University of South Dakota. This summer she will be working as a stitcher in the costume shop of the Black Hills Playhouse in Custer State Park, SD.

Rochelle Lockridge*Registrar's Assistant

Rochelle Lockridge worked for the 3M R&D organization for 26 years. She is now adventurously embarking on a new journey of self-employment. She enjoyed dancing Disco, English Country and a little Ballroom in high school and college. Thirty years later, the sweet siren song of partner dance has once again ensnared her.

Jackson Fossen*Music Director

Jackson is a social and competitive dancer with a great sense of humor who plans to double-major in math and computer science. He likes science and really enjoys a nice nap.

Paris Becker*Deck Captain

Paris started dancing when she was 3 years old and spent more than 15 years competing and performing nationally in Ballet and Musical Theater. Influenced by family members who are active in the ballroom community, Paris transitioned into ballroom dance while in college and became a member of the University of Minnesota Ballroom Dance Competition Team where she instantly fell in love with the style and social aspects of ballroom. Paris is known for her infectious positivity and she finds joy in helping her students achieve their goals. When she isn't dancing, Paris enjoys spending time with her family and pets, as well as visiting museums and advocating for education through interacting with science, art, and history.

GENE BERSTEN

Born in Belarus and raised in Minnesota, Gene's dance partner is his wife, Elena. He has been complimented on numerous occasions on his wonderful and strong partnering skills, his work ethic, his determination, and his passion for dancing and performing. Gene dances from his heart and always delivers a meaningful performance full of passion. Gene has won multiple United States titles in Latin dance championships. He has also been featured in a dance company called "Dance with Love," which has been featured nationwide. Gene owns one of the strongest and most well-known dance studios in the Midwest, Dance with Us America. He taught at Magic Ballroom and worked and taught at the Center for Youth Development for many years, sharing his love for dance. His aspirations include enhancing his love for dancing and performing by learning and growing his talent each and every day. He comes from a Russian background and has one sister and brother. His motto is: take one day at a time and always give 111% in everything you do. He hopes to expand his list of dancing opportunities while adding new experiences to his book of life.

JAY LARSON

Jay Larson is a native Minnesotan who has been an athlete his whole life. He stumbled into ballroom and latin dancing after earning a dual degree in Geography and Environmental Studies from Gustavus Adolphus College. Since becoming a professional ballroom competitor many years ago he has won titles including 3 time North American Rhythm Finalist, 3 time North American 9 Dance Champion and U.S. Professional 9 Dance Champion. He has also been a top teacher at many competitions across the U.S. and is now a certified judge, emcee and coach. Jay was also a founding member, dancer and choreographer for the 12 year run of Beyond Ballroom Dance Company. Jay is very thankful for this career in the art of movement and loves the opportunities to pass that knowledge on to the next generation!

HANNAH COLE

Hannah won her first dance competition aged 7, free-styling to "She wore an itsy-bitsy-teeny-weeny-yellow-polka-dot Bikini" at a talent show in Northern California. Upon discovery of partner dance in 1993, she became determined to share it with the World. She has since contributed to nearly every aspect of the ballroom profession as a teacher, coach, dance director, studio consultant, trainer of teachers, performer and competitor. She has worked, competed and performed throughout the US and abroad. Among other achievements, she was a 2004 Ohio Star Ball Rising Star Smooth finalist, and has won countless Top Teacher awards competing in all styles and levels. Her technical precision, innovative teaching techniques and genuine love of people have made her a most requested instructor and coach.

In 2012, Hannah was recruited to Las Cruces, New Mexico - where she currently resides - to establish and direct the New Mexico State University DanceSport concentration – one of only three, degree granting ballroom dance programs in the United States. As director and assistant professor, her mission to develop highly trained collegiate DanceSport athletes and globally competitive DanceSport alumni is seen to fruition as her graduates enter the workforce bringing heightened levels of skill and integrity to the ballroom profession. Most recently in 2015, Hannah was honored with Congressional Recognition for her achievements with the DanceSport Company and her positive representation of the Southern New Mexico region.

Hannah is the residing USA Dance Director of College Network and former co-organizer of the National Collegiate DanceSport Championships. She is co-author to the 2015 DVIDA Silver American Rhythm manual, a successful trainer for professional certifications, a Pro DVIDA regional examiner (since 2006) and holds professional certifications in American style Rhythm and Smooth, and International style Standard and Latin with DIVDA, ISTD and Terpsichore.

Judges

MEGHAN ANDERSON

Meghan has extensive dance training in tap, ballet, and jazz. During that time she trained with Mandy Moore, Ray Leeper, and more. She won several national titles while dancing competitively with the Dance Shoppe in Plymouth. Her ballroom dance experience started at a young age – even appearing on PBS' "Championship Ballroom Dancing" with her dad. After receiving her degree in Public Relations and working at a PR firm in Minneapolis, she soon realized her passion was to be a professional ballroom teacher and competitor. She trained and taught at studios in St. Paul and Milwaukee for the last several years.

Meghan is professionally certified in all styles of dance. She has been a guest performer with Beyond Ballroom Dance Company. Professionally, she competed in the American Rhythm with Slash Sharan and were Fred Astaire National Rising Star Champions, and Open Finalists. After moving back to the Twin Cities, she is dancing American Smooth with her fiancé, Igor Afonkin. Together they have been Rising Star and Open Finalists at competitions around the country. Meghan is currently teaching and coaching at studios in the Twin Cities area.

YULIA KORNILOVA

A dancer, athlete, performer, teacher, and adjudicator, Yulia Kornilova enjoys all aspects of the ballroom dance experience. This Russian powerhouse has won high honors in Russia as a 10-Dance and Show Dance champion as well as in the US as a Standard, Latin, and 10-Dance finalist. She joins the excitement at Dance Fest where she'll share her broad set of skills and in-depth knowledge of dance.

KATE BRATT

It is often said that you will hear Kate Bratt long before you see her. Kate's fun-loving personality, animated gestures, attention to detail, and copious supply of knowledge make her the ideal instructor for both new and experienced dancers.

Winning regional and state competitions in elite gymnastics and holding the gym record for highest score led Kate to search for a new competitive outlet after she got "too old" for gymnastics, which naturally led her to ballroom dancing. While consistently making finals through her career in pro-am, am-am, and pro competitions is fun, seeing her students succeed on the social and competitive dance floor keeps her motivated. Kate also counts working with the youth in the local college and high school on-going programs as a fun experience. Ballroom dancing has afforded her creative opportunities such as performing with Michael Johns (American Idol) and Gene Simmons (KISS), working on a national campaign for LensCrafters, and performing in the Minnesota Fringe Festival. Kate continues her education in dancing by being DVIDA certified and studying for upcoming USISTD exams. In her spare time, Kate enjoys cooking, doing yoga, crafting, and having dance parties with her entourage of handsome husband, four lovely daughters, and one awesome son. Kate also composes content for the websites Riot and Frolic and Dance Comp Review to keep sleeping hours to a minimum.

Lisa Vogel Galvin nourished her love for dance from a young age, training across a broad range of styles, including ballet, modern and contemporary, and ballroom. Top competitive ballroom accolades include: 2007 United States National Rising Star Champion; 2008 Professional Open Champion of French Open, Mexico Dance Sport, and Caribbean Open; 2007 World Open Professional American Smooth Finalist and 2008 Bronze Medalist; and 2008 United States Open Professional American Smooth Finalist and Silver Medalist in 2009.

In addition to her competitive career, Lisa has toured across the United States and performed on Broadway, as well as having been a featured performer in consecutive years of PBS's national television broadcast of America's Ballroom Challenge. In 2009 she was recognized with the National Dance Council of America Community Service Award for volunteer work teaching dance to underprivileged youth in Juarez, Mexico.

Lisa received her BFA in dance from Arizona State University, where she was the recipient of academic and artistic awards. Most recently, she has returned from a year abroad having graduated with an MA in contemporary dance performance from the Irish World Academy of Music and Dance in Limerick, Ireland, as a beneficiary of the Stepping Stone Scholarship.

Since returning, she has been a selected choreographer and soloist performer in the 2013 "RENOVATE, A Choreographer's Evening" as well as producing and choreographing "Merging Dualities" for the 2014 MN Fringe festival.

JEFF NEHRBASS

Jeff Nehrbass has had an illustrious career of teaching and competing. He's a the 2015 USDC Top Teacher, a world Pro/Am American Smooth Champion, the former coach of the USA Dance National formation team champions, and a multiple time US Pro/Am champion in many divisions. On top of those competitive achievements, he's fellow and former executive officer of the United States Imperial Society of Teachers of Dance, a championship level adjudicator for the NDCA, and he's been featured on PBS championship ballroom dancing.

ELENA BERSTEN

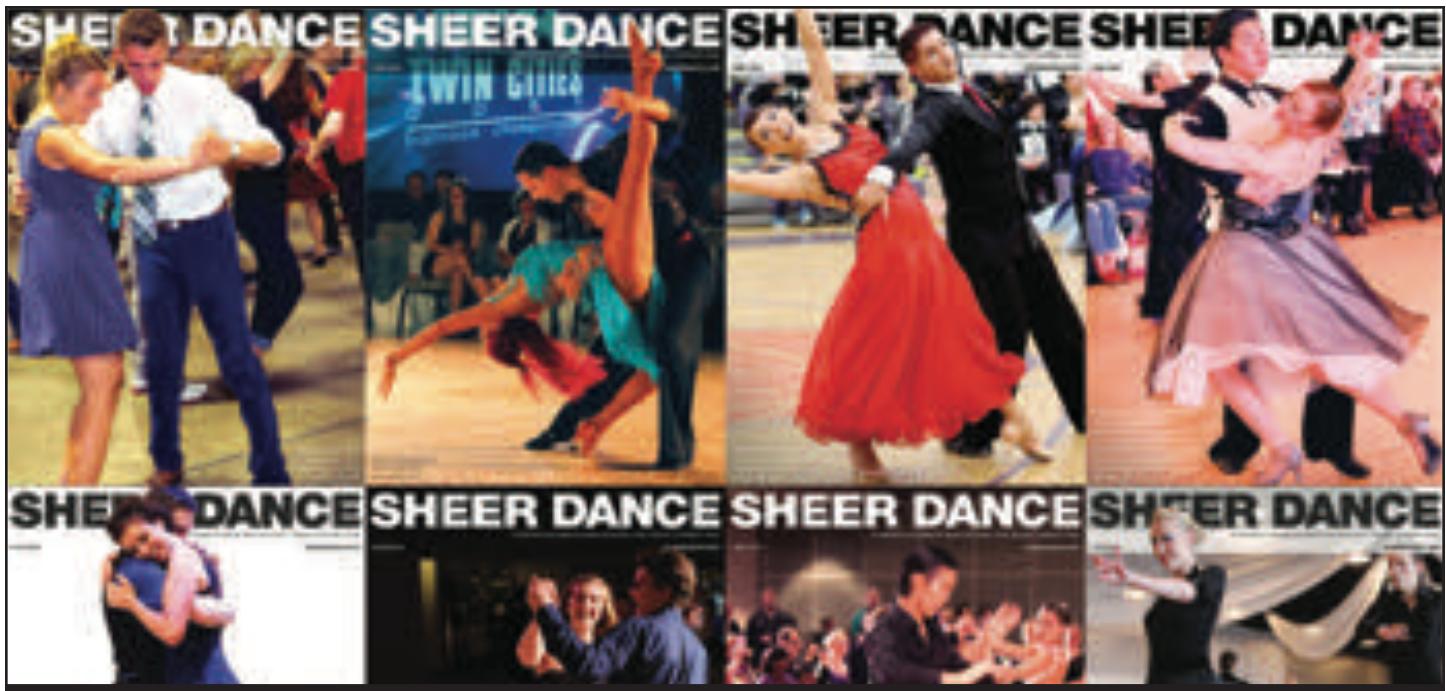

At the age of ten, Elena learned rhythmic gymnastics and in 1995 became a Russian gymnastics champion. At the age of twelve, she started learning ballroom and Latin. In the summer of 1998, she and her mother (a former Russian champion) opened the dance studio 21 Century. At age sixteen, Elena went to school for choreography. In her dancing career, Elena won numerous awards for her dancing abilities and won many prestigious Russian championships and titles. At the age of eighteen, she won the Russian formation team competition.

From 2000 to 2005, Elena attended the Orel State Institute of Arts and Culture and received a special certificate as a ballroom instructor. She also attended a Russian university for choreography. From 2003 to 2006, she was invited to be a dancer for Europe's renowned Moscow's Starlight Dancers. She toured in Finland, Sweden, Monte Carlo, and Cyprus. Elena also performed with many celebrities, including Lou Bega, Patricia Kass, Boney M, Touch and Go, and many other great performers. Elena performed on some of the most prestigious stages in Moscow and St. Petersburg. In 2006, she created her own dance show, 21 Century Dance. And from 2008 to 2010, she was invited to perform with Burn the Floor as part of the main couple.

Elena is co-owner of the Trophy Mayor dancesport competition. She is a recognized official judge of Russian Federation DanceSport and is USTA/NDCA-certified as a highly qualified member adjudicator in both international and American styles. She trained many of the junior and youth champions of Russia in her ballroom and Latin club, 21 Vek in Orel, Russia.

Now Elena, currently dancing with her husband, Gene, is co-owner and director of Dance with Us America, which is considered to be one of the best ballroom and Latin dance studios in the Midwest. She is also the choreographer of "Dance with Love," which has created dance shows such as "Behind the Mask" across the United States. Elena grows in her dancing every day by continuing her education, performing, and adding to the dance community with her wonderful performing, dancing, teaching, and passion.

MARCY MCHENRY

Marcy's experience in ballroom dancing stretches back over thirty years. After years of competing as a professional instructor, Marcy began her journey as a studio owner when Dancers Studio opened in 1986, and she has been loving every day since. Marcy teaches and coaches all styles and levels of dance but especially enjoys international standard. When she isn't on the dance floor, Marcy enjoys chatting with other studio members and spending time with her four children.

CYNTHIA LEHEW-NEHRBASS

Cynthia Lehew-Nehrbass has a Bachelor's Degree in Dance Performance and Choreography, a Master's Certificate in Creative Writing and various certifications in nutritional health, special needs advocacy and life coaching. Throughout her life she has studied with master teachers across the country in ballroom, ballet, contemporary, modern, jazz, liturgical, and musical theater dance styles. For over 30 years, she has been teaching, coaching and choreographing for dancers of all ages and owned a dance studio for over 22. As well as being a former award winning professional ballroom competitor with her husband in American Smooth and International Standard, she was top teacher in local and national competitions, and a long time local judge of both ballroom and performing arts competitions. Throughout her career, she has performed on stage in musical theater, operas, for contemporary companies, and even with Beyond Ballroom Dance Company. In addition, Cindy has been the artistic director of a liturgical dance company for over 26 year, as well as a frequent musical theater choreographer for many Minneapolis area high schools. Currently she is a practicing Eating Psychology and Life Coach, Communications Director for Gethsemane Lutheran Church in Minneapolis, volunteer parent advocate for PACER, ballroom instructor for local high school dance clubs, and an independent ballroom teacher and coach. Having helped start the first competition ballroom team at her alma mater, U.W. – Madison with her husband, she is honored to judge competitions, like U Dance Fest, that welcome dancers of all ages and encourage young people to discover a love of ballroom dance.

22 years of memories
 A lifetime more to come
 Come with me now down memory lane
 And embrace some of the things you have done!
 Dancing in the kitchen when you were 2
 To "C'mon ride the train"
 Pumping fists and singing choo choo
 Its surprising we're still sane!
 When I fell down the stairs
 You took my hand, so again I didnt fall
 "Mommy, its like this" you said
 Even at 3 you knew it all!
 Then at heidi & erics wedding
 You tipped over, sliding off of that tree
 Your hand never left your pocket though,
 The way we had asked you to be!
 Eating gross pizza from the blender
 After your tonsils were taken out
 Those girls said how brave you'd been
 A ladies man even at 7, no doubt!
 Until your brother came along
 And said he'd take all your girls

The 1 thing you have, that he never will
 Is that 'fro full of curls!
 Ages 8- until now, it was all video games
 You were a Call of Duty expert & a Halo beast
 Lets not forget spongebob though -
 "Oh, I thought you said Weest"
 The gameboy was your favorite
 Pokémon went everywhere you

Just bear with me if you can
 And always remember
 Hey Cody - we love you man!!
 The memories of marching band
 Seem to rise over the rest
 But tripping over the flag, still playing trombone
 Probably wont be considered your best
 Champions for 4 years though
 Through blood, sweat & tears
 That effort, dedication & lessons learned
 Has helped get you to here!
 To now ballroom dancing,
 Who would have ever thought
 From that silly dance at the halloween party
 To the Waltz, Rumba and Foxtrot?
 Ill wrap up with some emotion
 Im so incredibly proud you're my son
 Go out and conquer this life
 Live passionately, have fun - as youve always done!
 I love you Cody - always & forever!

-Mom

Congratulations Joe!
 We are proud of you
 and hope
 you are having fun.
 Love, Mom and Dad

Daniel,
 We are so proud of you!
 Keep playing as hard as you work!
 We Love
 you, Mom
 & Dad

Jessica, You've outgrown your first dance costume, but you will never outgrow your love of dance. We can see it in your beautiful smile! Love,
Mom, Dad & Ryan

Isabella,
We so love watching you perform!
Your love for music and dance shines when you step onto the dance floor. Best of luck, cheering for you as always!
Te amamos y siempre serás nuestro bebé Bella.
Love Mom and Dad

Seth... you have always been one very happy dancer. 😊 All the best to you and your dancing feet.

To our dearest Christina,
We blinked, and here you are just about to walk to receive your college diploma! You have continued to amaze us during your four rich and wonderful years at the UMN with all the new adventures and experiences you have embraced. We are so thrilled you found the dance floor and the wonderful UMN Ballroom Dance Team as one of your greatest fulfilling sources of joy!
As you know, the dance floor is where we met and have spent so many wonderful times, so we are delighted you have found the same thrill and community of dancing that will last you your whole life. Always remember we love you to the moon and back, a million times over!
Love, Mom & Dad

Sam asked a question of his teacher,
He asked it for the stern Miss
Meacher,
You wouldn't punish me would you?
For something i that i did not do,
Of course not boy, answered Miss,
Spitting the reply out with a Hiss,
Thats a relief he began to explain,
As i didn't do my homework again.

-Natalie Bebbington
Best of luck, everyone!
P.S. Which one of these two adorable rascals am I?

Good Luck Alec!
May your steps be light and your moves tight.
We are so proud of you!
Love, Dad and Mom

Thanks for Joining Us!

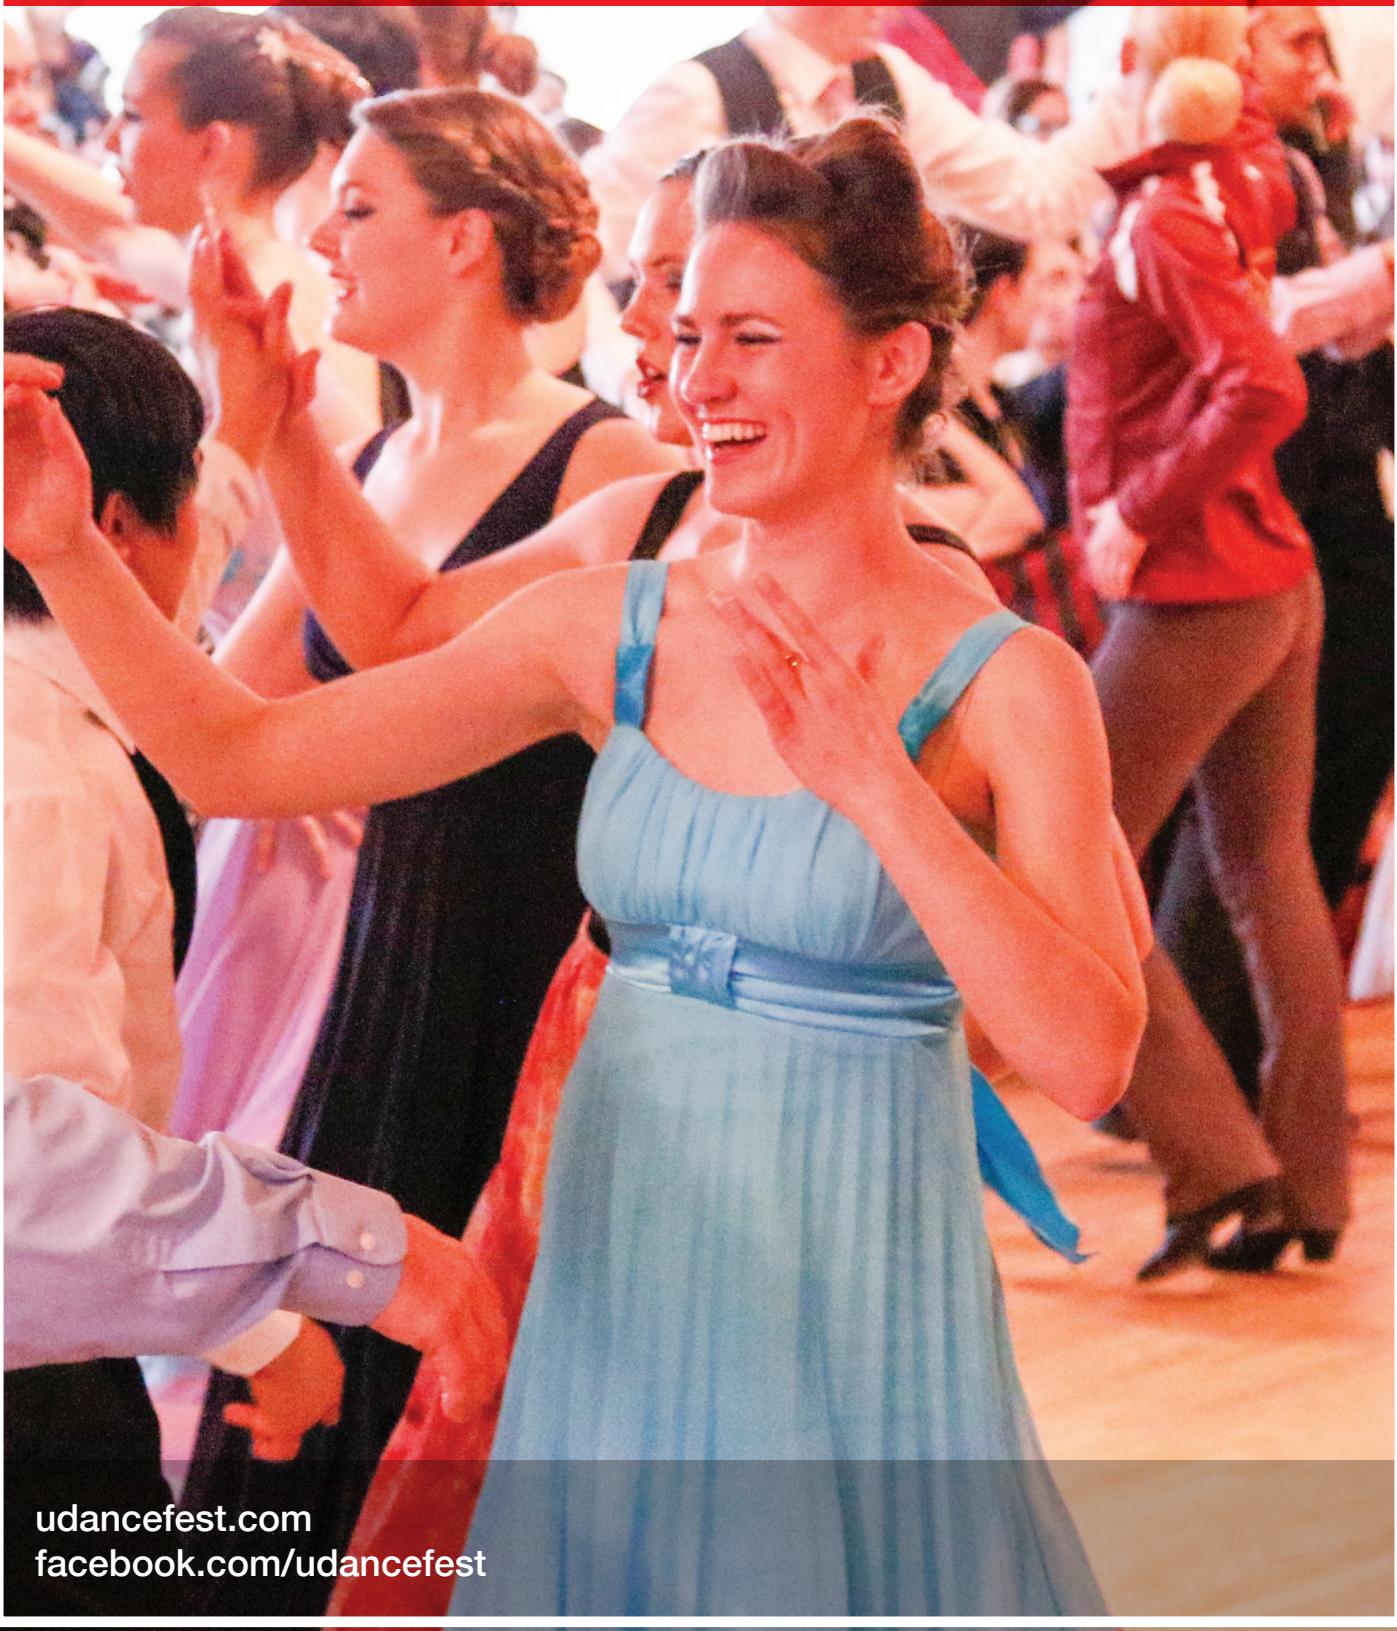

We'd love to see you at the sixth-annual Minnesota Ballroom Blast, a fun, low-stress event designed to provide dancers with feedback from seasoned dance professionals. This event is excellent preparation for upcoming competitions. If you want to know what the judges see when you dance, without the stress of competing against other couples, join us on October 28th at Coffman Memorial Union. Spoiler alert: you won't want to miss the seminars at Blast; they will be epic! Visit www.mnballroomblast.com for more information.

Don't forget to submit photos and articles to Sheer Dance! All content can be emailed to info@sheerdance.com, and you can download the magazine at www.sheerdance.com. Sheer Dance is your first stop for information on what's going on in the local partner-dancing community.

Thanks for making Dance Fest a success, and we hope to see you again soon!
